And read I have. Recently I finished a fascinating book called Arrow of the Blue-Skinned God by Jonah Blank. The author wrote the book when he was 25, the same age as Prince Rama at the beginning of the Ramayana and the book is centered around the author's quest to trace Rama's journey from his homeland into exile and beyond. This book was fascinating to me on so many different levels that I must divide my thoughts into two posts, one to talk about the historical side of the story and ...
