Grammar Form and Function, Book 1 by Milada Broukal

A useful distinction in grammar is that of form and function. Grammatical form is concerned with the description of linguistic units in terms of what they are, and grammatical function is concerned with the description of what these linguistic units do. Note that we use capital letters at the beginning of function labels.

"The most complex grammatical function is that of subject. Consider the example in (1). (1) The tigers hunt prey at night. Tigers precedes the verb. It agrees with the verb in number, as becomes clear when it is made singular: The tiger hunts its prey at night. In the active construction, it is never marked by any preposition.
